

Micro-Renewable Energy Federation

PRESS RELEASES

25 November 2025

- 25 November 2024 - MREF seeks increased supports for renewable energy projects and stream-lined grant and grid application processes in its pre-election manifesto
- 29 November 2024 - Schools Photovoltaic Programme Phase 2 Launched
EGS:001690001052 – MREF Members feedback
- 2 January 2025 – Five questions farmers and businesses need to be answered before choosing a PV Install Partner
- 7 January 2025 – MREF calls for publication of economic model supporting SRESS Incentive Scheme
- 24 January 2025 - MREF says destruction caused by Storm Éowyn has demonstrated once again the lack of climate resilience in the Irish electricity grid
- 7th February 2025 - Micro-Renewable Energy Federation Seeks Revisions to School PV Scheme to Maximise Positive Impacts of Solar Energy Installations on Schools
- 11 February 2025 - Government commitment to upgrading the ESB distribution grid must address micro generation export restrictions on farms and businesses.
- 24 March 2025 - MREF Calls for Urgent Review of Schools Solar PV Programme
- 1 May 2025 - Micro Renewable Energy Federation Calls for Urgent Reform of Solar Backup Regulations and Battery Storage Grants
- 19 May 2025 - MREF Calls on SEAI to Remove Grant Cut-Off Barrier which is Penalising Growing Irish Businesses
- 9 June 2025 - MREF calls for NO eligibility restrictions on future Solar PV TAMS applications
- 10 September 2025 - Budget Submission: MREF calls for refocused Government supports to help homes, farms and businesses address energy cost increases by supporting solar PV and battery storage investments
- 25 September 2025 - MREF seeks clarity from Huawei around reports in the UK media of its exit from the UK market and the implications for customers Ireland
- 7 October 2025 - MREF welcomes extension of income disregard for micro-generation of renewable power for 3 years to 2028
- 16 October 2025 - MREF calls for immediate media clarification and Regulator action to address power backup from renewable power sources in homes and businesses
- 17 November 2025 - MREF welcomes Energy Minister's decision not to cut grant level for roof-top solar PV installations.